MEMORANDUM FOR: The Acting Director

FROM: Dave Gries [Signature]

SUBJECT: Weekly Report

Briefing on Nicaragua for House Freshmen: The briefing was well received, but apparently we were largely preaching to the choir. Eleven Members came, but 10 of these were Republicans and the lone Democrat was already judged a likely supporter of aid to the contras.

House Select Committee: Our first appearance is on Tuesday with Bob Layton as lead briefer presenting an overview of the Iran-Iraq war and the domestic political situation in Iran.

SSCI Off-Site Conference: The SSCI has informed us that they have invited NSC Director Carlucci to their off-site conference on 20 Feb. and that he has accepted. Other Intelligence Community officials as well as some of our own people will also be invited.

Pay Proposals: The President's pay proposals went into effect when the House failed to take action on them by the Tuesday deadline. The next day the House passed a disapproval measure, but most observers view the vote as invalid. There will probably be legal as well as legislative challenges to the increase in the near future.

Biden Introduces "Drug Czar" Bill: Senator Biden has reopened the battle over "drug czar" legislation by introducing S. 15, a bill to disestablish the National Drug enforcement Policy Board and create a "czar" in its stead.
